GENERAL

If you wish to have these terms and conditions in large print or braille or you have any queries on them, please telephone 0208 885 3999.

The purpose of this document is to confirm the arrangements between us. Our Terms and Conditions represent a legally binding agreement between you and us. The expression “we”, “us”, and “our” refer to Virgo Solicitors Ltd and “you” and “your” refer to our client.

These terms and conditions will apply to any services which we provide to you and will usually be supplemented by a letter dealing amongst other things with the specific services to be provided and the fees payable.

These terms and conditions may be revised from time to time and a copy will be sent to you to replace these, and the revised terms and conditions will apply from the date you receive them. You are of course free to terminate the arrangement between us if you do not accept the revised terms and conditions.

Although your continuing instructions in this matter will amount to an acceptance of these Terms and Conditions, it may not be possible for us to start work on your behalf until you sign, date and return one copy of this document for our file.

Before you sign and return it to us, it is important to you that you read and indeed understand this document. This document is provided for you to keep and a copy will be retained on file.

BUSINESS HOURS

The normal hours of opening our office is between 9:30am and 5:30pm on weekdays. Messages can be left on the answer phone outside those hours and appointments can be arranged at other times outside office hours when this is essential or necessary. During public holidays our office is closed, but we do have provisions in place to do emergency work. Our office may close between the Christmas period up until the New Year and the work that we carry out is organised and arranged to take this holiday period into account.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR WORK

The name of the person who will carry out most of the work in this matter and, if different, the fee earner with overall responsibility for your matter will be confirmed in our Client Care or Advice Letter. The appointed fee earner may from time to time, be assisted by other members of our team i.e. trainees, paralegals, legal assistants etc. However, you will be notified of this either in the Client Care Letter or in writing when applicable. The fee earner's work will also be supervised by another fee earner is knowledgeable about the work being carried out in respect of your instructions. The details of the named Supervisor will also be confirmed in our Client Care or Advice Letter.

We try hard to avoid changing the people who are handling your work but if this cannot be avoided, we will notify you promptly of the name and status of the person who will be dealing with your case.

OUR SERVICES

Scope of our Services

The scope of the services we have agreed to provide for you in any matter will be agreed between us and confirmed in our Client Care Letter. You agree that you do not require us to provide you advice or further services in relation to any aspect outside of the scope of the services so agreed.

Level of Service

We will regularly update you by telephone or in writing with progress on your matter in particular, following key events or stages in your matter. We will always endeavour to communicate with you in plain language.

We will update you on the cost of your matter at least six monthly and/or at agreed events. Whenever there is a material change in circumstances, we will update you on whether the likely outcomes still justify the likely costs and risks associated with your matter. We will continue to review whether there are alternative methods by which your matter can be funded.

We will update you on the likely timescales for each stage of this matter and any important changes in those estimates.

Joint Instructions

Where we are jointly instructed by you and another client to act in a matter, we will assume that either of you are authorised to give us instructions, unless either of you advise us otherwise. In addition, as matters progress, we may need to act on instructions of other people from whom we consider it is reasonable to take instructions in order to progress the matter within the timescales set. Unless informed of any change, we will assume that this remains the case until our work is completed.

YOUR COMMITMENT TO US

To assist us in carrying out the work as efficiently as possible, you will need to ensure that all information provided is to the best of your knowledge complete, accurate and up to date. You should also notify us of any changes or variations to that information which may arise after the date it is passed to us and of any new circumstances that might be relevant to the work we are undertaking.

SAFE WORKING

It is our aim to maintain a good working relationship with all of our clients. Please note, however, that we will not tolerate violence and aggression. We understand that our clients may be experiencing stressful times and we will endeavour to support our clients throughout this but no member of our staff should be subjected to unreasonable, violent, threatening and abusive behaviour, whether verbal, physical or written.

If, at any time, a member of staff encounters unreasonable, violent, threatening and/or abusive behaviour from you (or by a third party on your behalf), whether verbal, physical or written, then we reserve the right to take immediate action to protect our staff. This may include imposing restrictions or controls, whether temporary or longer-term, on how we engage with you going forward. Violence or threats of violence will also be reported to the police where appropriate. In some circumstances, the firm may determine that we have to cease acting for you and terminate your retainer (see below).

OUR CHARGES

Professional Fees

Unless and until either an alternative fee arrangement has been agreed and confirmed in writing by us or you are entitled to have our fees paid by the Legal Aid Agency (in which case different cost considerations apply as set out in our Client Care Letter), the basis for calculation of our fees is primarily by reference to the time spent by the fee earner(s) dealing with the matter (including any time which we spend travelling) and will be charged at an hourly rate.

Where relevant, the hourly rates applicable to your matter will be confirmed to you in our Client Care Letter. We may from time to time review our charging rates and will notify you immediately in writing of any changes which are applicable to your matter.

Our current rates from time to time may not be appropriate in cases of exceptional complexity or urgency or where specialist knowledge is required. Where it becomes apparent that such circumstances exist we will notify you of this.

We are registered for VAT purposes. Our VAT registration number is 848507987.

All fees are quoted exclusive of VAT, which will be added where appropriate. Currently, the VAT prevailing rate is 20%.

Matter not concluded

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, our fees are payable whether or not a matter is successfully concluded. If any matter does not proceed to completion for any reason during the period in which we are instructed, then we will be entitled to charge for work done by proportion of the agreed fee as set out above but, at its absolute discretion, we may waive part or all of such entitlement to fees.

Estimate of Costs

We will provide you at the outset of a matter with the best possible information on our costs and will update this information as the matter progresses. As you will appreciate however, a matter can often end up taking quite a different shape from that envisaged at the time when it starts and the legal advisers are instructed. Accordingly, it can be difficult to come up with a clear estimate. However, as matters progress, we should be able to provide you with more detailed estimates of our likely costs and will keep this under review with you.

Limits

Whilst it is often not possible to estimate charges in advance, it is open to you to notify us of any limit which you wish to impose on our charges after which further reference will be made to you. We will advise you when it appears that any costs estimates or limits are close to being exceeded. Notwithstanding any estimates or costs limits however, the final bill will be a product of the amount of time our fee earners spend on the matter and our agreed fee rates; any estimates provided are neither intended to be a cap nor a target billing figure. Therefore, if significant further work is required in addition to that currently envisaged or if the timetable is extended significantly, our fees will be greater than our indicative estimates. Should it become apparent at any time during the course of the matter that significant further work will be required, we shall of course let you know.

Fixed Charges

In leasehold property transactions which we undertake and in transactions involving a substantial financial consideration or benefit to the client, fees may be calculated both by reference to the time spent and also by reference to a value element i.e. value of the financial benefit. The value element reflects the importance of the transaction and the consequent responsibility falling on us as a firm. We will tell you in advance if a value element will be included, how it will be calculated and the amount to be charged.

Third party responsibility

In certain circumstances, there may be an expectation that a third party (including an insurer) will pay your costs. We may at our discretion issue invoices to a third party funder and accept payments from them but you will remain liable to us for all charges. In the event that the third party does not pay the sums due, you will be required to pay them.

Disbursements

We may incur certain expenses on your behalf, (for example, such items as court fees, counsel's fees, search fees). You will have to pay those expenses or reimburse us for them in addition to our fees. VAT is payable on certain disbursements.

BILLING

Timing of bills

We will normally send you a final bill for the settlement of our services at the end of the matter. However, if the matter is ongoing, we may render interim bills at agreed intervals.

Payments on account

We may ask you to pay sums of money from time to time on account of the anticipated fees. We will offset any such payments against your final bill.

Total fees may be greater than any advance payments.

Settlement of bills

Accounts are to be paid by you when due, whether or not the amounts concerned may ultimately have to be paid by another party. Bills are to be settled in full within 30 days of receipt.

We may charge interest on unpaid bills from 30 days of delivery of the bill on a daily basis at rate of 4% above the base rate of Barclays Bank plc.

In relation to non-contentious costs, we are entitled to charge interest on unpaid bills at the rate payable on judgment debts from one month after delivery of the bill in accordance with Article 5 of the Solicitors' (Non-Contentious Business) Remuneration Order 2009. We reserve the right to charge interest on any outstanding amounts at the rate of 4% above the base rate of Barclays Bank plc.

If any payment on account is not made or a bill is not settled in accordance with these terms, we reserve the right to decline to act further for you.

Concerns over your bill

If you are not satisfied with the amount of our fees please contact us. Objections about the amount of our fee will be handled by way of our complaints procedure.

If you remain unhappy about the level of our fees you may be able to make a complaint to the Legal Ombudsman (as more particularly set out above) or may be entitled to have the bill assessed by the Court in accordance with Part III of the Solicitors Act 1974. Your rights are set out more fully in Sections 70, 71 and 72 of the Solicitors Act 1974.

Lien over papers and documents

Following the conclusion of your matter, we are entitled to retain your file of papers and documents while there is money owing to us for fees.

CYBER

Contracted with the Legal Aid Agency

We operate a client account facility which allows for money to be held or transferred in relation to a matter we are working on. However, the facility is operated at our discretion and any unauthorised receipts will be held pending further investigation or returned to the sender. Therefore, we ask that you give us advance warning of any receipts.

Any client money we hold on your behalf in our client account is afforded the protection under the Solicitors Act 1974.

Client monies will normally be held by us in a general client account with our primary banker, Barclays Bank plc in the name of ‘VIRGO SOLICITORS LIMITED’.

Payment on account for our fees or disbursements

We may ask you for advance payments on account for our fees and/or to enable us to pay disbursements on your behalf as and when they become due. Money paid by you on account of our costs and/or unpaid disbursements will be treated as client money and paid into our client account (see above for details).

We will confirm in writing (by letter or email) whenever we need to make a transfer of all or some of those sums to our business account to cover our fees for work that we have undertaken.

We may need to draw upon sums held for you in the client account to reimburse us for payments we have made on your behalf, for example, where we pay a court or search fee on your behalf using our own money. You will have been informed at the outset (or updated during your matter as necessary) of likely disbursements we will need to make on your behalf and some of the monies we ask you to pay on account will reflect those anticipated costs. Where it is appropriate to do so, we will deduct money from sums paid by you into our client account to reimburse us for those payments after they have been paid by us. We will not issue a bill each and every time that we make a transfer but we will ensure that you are provided with information as and when appropriate (not least a final bill at the end of the matter) to ensure that you can reconcile the payments. All transfers will be done in accordance with our regulatory obligations (including those set out in Rule 5 of the SRA Accounts Rules). For more information, see: <https://www.sra.org.uk/solicitors/standards-regulations/accounts-rules/>.

It is our policy to only accept cash up to £1,500. If you circumvent this policy by depositing cash direct with our bank we reserve the right to charge for any additional checks we deem necessary regarding the source of the funds. Where we have to pay money to you, it will be paid by cheque or bank transfer. It will not be paid in cash or to a third party.

Client Interest

If we hold money on your behalf in our client account, in accordance with the SRA Accounts Rules, it is our policy that we will pay you a sum of money in lieu of interest on a fair and reasonable basis.

Client monies will normally be held by us in a general client account with our primary banker, Barclays Bank plc.

A sum in lieu of interest will be payable on amounts held in our general client account on the following basis:

1. The period for which interest will be paid normally runs from the date the funds are received by us cleared in our account until, where paid electronically, the date when the funds are sent or, where paid by cheque, the date(s) on the cheque(s) issued to you;
2. The rate of interest paid to clients will be in line with Barclays Bank plc's published interest rates on Client Deposit Accounts over the period when interest is due;
3. All sums that are paid to you will be paid as a gross amount;
4. We will not account to you for any sums in lieu of interest in the following situations:
 - a. On money held for the payment of a professional disbursement if the person to whom the money is owed has requested a delay in settlement;
 - b. On money held for the Legal Aid Agency;
 - c. On money on an advance to us to fund a payment on your behalf in excess of funds already held for you;
 - d. Where the total amount of interest calculated over the course of the matter is £20 or less;
 - e. Otherwise, where there is an agreement to contract out of the provisions of this policy.

If it is apparent that money held on your behalf will need to be retained for some time then such money may need to be placed in a designated deposit account in which case all of the interest accruing while the funds are so invested will be paid to you when the account is closed or on intermittent basis as agreed with you.

It is extremely unlikely that we could be held liable to you if any money held in our client account is lost due to any failure in the banking system including bank collapse. However, you may be entitled to make a claim against the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) in the event of failure of the bank. The amount of compensation which the FSCS can pay out is limited to £85,000 (subject to some restrictions). We may be able to make a claim to FSCS on your behalf. If we do so, we will, subject to our obtaining your consent, give certain client information to FSCS to help them identify you and any amounts to which you are entitled.

INVESTMENT

Sometimes the work we are likely to carry out for you can involve investments. We are not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (previously the Financial Services Authority) and so may refer a client to someone who is authorised to provide any necessary investment advice. However, we can provide certain limited services in relation to investments provided they are closely linked with the legal services we are providing to a client, as we are members of the Law Society of England and Wales.

If we recommend a referral to a particular firm, agency or business to provide you with investment advice, we shall do so in good faith but we shall not be liable to you for any advice you may be given by them. Furthermore, if that firm, agency or business is not another firm of solicitors you will not be afforded the regulatory protection of the SRA and shall not be entitled to the benefit of the SRA Compensation Fund.

The Law Society is a designated professional body for the purposes of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 but responsibility for regulation and complaints handling has been separated from the Law Society's representative functions. The SRA is the independent regulatory body of the Law Society and the Legal Ombudsman is the independent complaints handling body of the Law Society.

are Howden Insurance Brokers Limited. Traveler's website is www.travelers.co.uk and they can be contacted at 61 – 63 London Road, Redhill, Surrey, RH1 1NA and / or 01737 787787.

Other Insurance business

We are not authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (formerly the Financial Services Authority). However, our firm is included on the FCA Register so that we can carry on insurance distribution activity, which is broadly the advising on, selling and administration of insurance contracts. This is part of our business, including arrangements for complaints or redress if something goes wrong is regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority. The register can be accessed via the Financial Conduct Authority website at www.fca.gov.uk.

We do not generally sell or advise on insurance policies except those that are required in relation to our conveyancing and litigation practices. In conveyancing work, clients may encounter a problem that can be overcome by the taking out of a suitable insurance policy such as to protect against a defect in the title to a property. Similarly, in litigation, 'after the event' insurance may be obtained by us on behalf of a client to protect against the costs the client may incur when making a claim. Should we identify a problem that cannot readily be overcome without taking out such a policy, we will inform clients at the appropriate time.

If we are requested to recommend an insurer, we will advise the client about the range of legal indemnity insurers we have checked before recommending a particular policy and, if it is not on a fair market analysis, we will explain the basis upon which the recommendation has been made and will check the suitability of any such policy. If we are requested to assist in the arranging of any insurance on behalf of a client, we will inform the client of all necessary information by means of a written 'demand and needs statement'.

If we recommend a referral to a particular insurer, we shall do so in good faith but we shall not be liable to you for any advice or assistance you may be given by them. Furthermore, you will not be afforded the regulatory protection of the SRA and shall not be entitled to the benefit of the SRA Compensation Fund in relation to those insurance services.

We are registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioners Office. We will use the information that you give us to provide you with legal services, as per your instructions. We will keep your information confidential and will only use it for the purpose(s) for which it was provided or as is permitted in law (i.e. for dealing with complaints or regulatory investigations).

Outsourcing of our services

Sometimes we have outsourcing arrangements with external companies which cover a range of services including, but not limited to secretarial and administration support, credit control and tele-conferencing facilities to ensure that our services are provided promptly and efficiently. Personal data and confidential information that we hold may be passed to these providers in order for them to undertake these services. In doing so we will always take care to ensure that your information remains confidential and safe. In particular, we have appropriate data protection and confidentiality agreements in place with each of the providers.

Sharing information

If you are a client under the legal aid scheme then we may be contractually required to share some or all of that information with the Legal Aid Agency and / or with our quality assurance auditors.

Occasionally, we may need to share some or all of your information with our quality assurance auditors for the purposes of their assessment of whether we are adhering to quality standards. In particular, our files may need to be assessed for quality purposes by a Lexcel assessor and your file may be one of a sample which is to be assessed. Any examination will be strictly controlled and will be shared for the sole purpose of ensuring that our handling of your matter meets the requirements of the quality standard.

We may have to share some or all of your information with other third parties. This may include barristers, experts and other third parties who we need to instruct to assist us with your matter. We may also have to share information with the Legal Ombudsman (if you complain about our services) and the Solicitors Regulation Authority (the statutory body that regulates solicitors). In doing so we will always take care to ensure that your information remains confidential and safe. We will liaise with you during your case about which experts, barristers and other third parties we instruct on your behalf.

We may wish to contact you in the future about our other services. Please let us know if you are happy to receive that information. To inform us of your preference, you are invited to tick the relevant box in the notice provided with your client care letter and return it to us.

Your Rights

You have rights as a Data Subject under the General Data Protection Regulation as incorporated into the law of the United Kingdom by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (and known as the UK GDPR) the EU General Data Protection Regulation (EU GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018.

Our Privacy Policy which is made available on our website at <https://virgosolicitors.co.uk/privacy-policy/> or will be provided on request contains important information on how and why we collect, process and store your personal data. It also explains your rights in relation to your personal data.

Your rights include the right to be informed what information we hold about you which is known as a data subject access request (although obviously it is likely that you will have provided us with such information as we hold).

You also have the right of access and to request a copy of any information about you that we hold at any time. You also have a right of rectification and, in particular, to request that information is corrected if it is inaccurate.

There are also other rights available to you but these may be limited to a certain extent should you become a client as we may have overriding regulatory duties with respect to handling of your data for the purposes of providing services to you.

In particular, you may have a right of erasure (also known as the right to be forgotten). In certain circumstances, this allows you to request that we erase your personal data. This is not an absolute right however and, once you become a client of our firm, we will be required by our regulators and for legal purposes to retain some of your personal data and other information within casefiles (for retention periods, please see below).

If you are concerned about our handling of your personal data, there are also other rights available to you: a right to restrict processing; a right to data portability; a right to object and to request we stop processing your personal data; and a right in relation to automated decision making and profiling.

Importantly, you also have rights to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office if you feel that your data is not being handled properly.

For information on how your information is used, how we maintain the security of our information, and/or to exercise any of your data rights as explained above, please contact us. Similarly, if you wish to make a complaint in relation to our handling of your data, such as any potential data breach, then please contact us at the earliest opportunity.

Further Information about your data rights and how to exercise them is set out in our Privacy Policy (see above about how to access that). Further details are also available by visiting the Information Commissioner's Office's website at: <https://ico.org.uk/your-data-matters/>.

Please mark your enquiry, request or complaint for the attention of Abess Taqi, who is our Data Protection Officer, and the person in this firm responsible for data protection. All enquiries and requests can be sent to them by telephone 0208 885 3999, by emailing info@virgosolicitors.co.uk or in writing to Suite 21 Imperial House, 64 Willoughby Lane, Tottenham, London N17 0SP.

How long will we hold your data?

We will only hold your information for as long as necessary to provide you with legal services and then for only so long as we are required either contractually or under our regulatory obligations. This will generally be six years after the end of your matter. In some cases, for instance where you or a named party are currently under the age of eighteen, we may decide that we are required and/or it is proper and appropriate to keep your data for longer than this period, but we will notify you if we believe that your case falls into this category.

After the designated retention time, we will confidentially destroy all information that we hold about you (in accordance with the clauses below relating to storage and retrieval) other than your name, address and date of birth which we will be obliged to continue to hold for the purposes of ensuring that we never act for another client where doing so would conflict with our obligations of confidentiality to you.

There are some specific points of which you should be aware:

- a. Communications over the Internet are not completely secure. You will have to guide us as to what should or should not be sent over the internet.
- b. Viruses or other harmful devices may be spread over the internet. We take reasonable precautions to prevent these problems by use of a firewall and virus checking software. If we are to communicate by email, it is on the basis that you will do likewise.

CYBERCRIME AND EMAIL FRAUD

It is unfortunate that Cybercrime and email fraud targeted at law firms and their clients is on the increase. Fraudsters are using very sophisticated methods to manipulate IT and intercept communications.

Confirmation of our bank details

Our bank account details will be confirmed to you at the outset of the matter. We will not be changing our bank account details during the course of dealing with your matter so the account details we have confirmed will stay the same throughout the lifetime of your matter.

It is very important that you are aware that we will not notify you of changes to our bank account details by email. We will only notify you of changes to important business information, including bank account details, in official correspondence which will be sent by postal mail.

If you ever receive any other communication purporting to come from us and which purports to change our bank account details or to request that you send funds to another account, please do not rely on this and immediately contact the person at this firm handling your matter by telephone. Even if the request appears to have come from us, you must never send funds to another account unless you have verified this with us.

We cannot take any responsibility for any losses where funds are transferred to other accounts that have not been verified by us.

Sending funds to our bank account(s)

Prior to transferring any funds to our account, we recommend you contact us to verify our account details. Wherever possible, you should contact the contact the person at this firm handling your matter by telephone.

Our liability to you for a breach of your instructions shall be limited to £3,000,000, unless we expressly state a higher amount in the letter accompanying these terms of business. We will not be liable for any consequential, special, indirect or exemplary damages, costs or losses or any damages, costs or losses attributable to lost profits or opportunities.

We can only limit our liability to the extent the law allows. In particular, we cannot limit our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence.

Please ask if you would like us to explain any of the terms above.

DRAFTS

Where we provide draft or provisional advice or other materials, that advice or those materials are not to be relied upon as constituting our final view.

REFERRALS

If your matter has been referred to us by a third party, any information you provide to us or any advice that we give you during your matter will not be shared with the third party unless you expressly agree.

However, please note that if we are acting both for you and the third party in this matter, we may have to stop acting for both of you if there is a conflict of interest.

Furthermore, please note that we do not operate referral arrangements with third parties for remuneration as we view that this type of arrangement can lead to a firm being manipulated by an introducer to the detriment of the clients. In relation to referrals by third parties generally, the Principles of our independence and acting in the best interests of each client is of particular relevance to us.

THIRD PARTY RIGHTS

The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 does not apply to the terms of our retainer with you or any subsequent amendment to it unless we expressly confirm in writing this it does apply.

ENFORCEMENT

In the event that any of these terms and conditions is held to be invalid, the remainder of the terms and conditions will remain in full force and effect.

complaint with the Case owner, please direct your complaint to the firm's Practice Manager, Mrs. Sengul Turgut at Shen@virgosolicitors.co.uk or 0208 885 3999.

We have a procedure in place which details how we handle complaints and this will be immediately be sent to you.

Our complaints procedure is as follows:

Step One:

If you have not already done so, please let us know the full nature of the problem. Ideally, we would prefer that your complaint be confirmed in writing in order that any scope for misunderstanding can be avoided. However, this is not obligatory and you are welcome to provide the details to us over the telephone or face to face. If you are setting out your concerns in writing then you can do this by emailing to abess@virgosolicitors.co.uk or writing to me at Dr. Abess Taqi, Virgo Solicitors Limited, Suite 21, Imperial House, 64 Willoughby Lane, London, N17 0SP.

Step Two:

We will write to you acknowledging your complaint within five working days. In our acknowledgment letter, we shall confirm what happens next.

Step Three:

We shall then investigate the matter by reviewing the matter file and speaking to the member of staff concerned within ten working days of acknowledging receipt of your complaint. If, for some reason, the matter cannot be investigated in this timeframe, then we will write to you notifying you of this together with the reason why and giving a revised timescale.

Once the investigation has been completed, if appropriate and necessary, we shall invite you to discuss the issue(s) you have raised and hopefully resolve the complaint. This could be a meeting, video conference call or telephone call and we can discuss your preference and what may be suitable at that time. This process of engagement will take place within ten working days of our concluding the investigation of the matter.

We shall write to you within five working days of any meeting or call to confirm our discussion and the solution agreed upon and/or any final redress that is offered.

Alternatively, if you do not want to or are unable to attend such a meeting or you would prefer to continue to correspond by letter or email (or if a meeting is not required), we will send you a detailed, written response, including our proposed solution, within fifteen working days of us concluding our investigation.

Step Four:

If you are satisfied with our response following the above steps, that will be the end of the matter. However, if you remain dissatisfied, you will be invited to contact our Complaints Handling Representative again and they will arrange for another senior staff member who is unconnected with the matter, namely the firm's Practice Manager, Mrs. Shen Turgut (contact details: shen@virgosolicitors.co.uk) or another local solicitor if this is preferred by the client to review the decision. We will write to you within ten working days of receiving the request with confirmation of the firm's final position in relation to the complaint, outlining the reasons and any final redress that is offered.

Step Five: Other avenues

You must always try complaining to us first. In most cases you will not be able to take your complaint further without allowing us the opportunity to put things right.

Legal Ombudsman

We are permitted a period of eight weeks to consider the complaint. If for any reason we are unable to resolve the problem between us within that timeframe, then you may ask the Legal Ombudsman to consider the complaint.

You are free to refer any complaint about our work, fees or level of service but there are some conditions and time limits. Please be aware that any complaint to the Legal Ombudsman must usually be made within six months of you having received a final written response from us about your complaint. Complaints to the Legal Ombudsman must usually be made within one year of the act or omission about which you are complaining occurring or from when you should have known about or become aware that there were grounds for complaint.

Should it be clear that you are exercising your rights under data and information rights legislation, please be assured that we will handle that aspect of your complaint in accordance with our regulatory obligations. For instance, we will aim to provide a full response to a Personal Data request within one month but if we cannot respond within that timescale, we will let you know when we will be able to respond. You can find guidance on our obligations under data and information rights legislation on the ICO's website (www.ico.org.uk) as well as information on their regulatory powers and the action they can take. You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the ICO provided that you have first allowed us the opportunity to attempt to resolve it ourselves. For further information or to contact the ICO please visit www.ico.org.uk/concerns or call 0303 123 1113.

Your rights to refer the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman and SRA (as set out above) may still be available to you in addition to your Personal Data rights.

CONFIDENTIALITY

We owe you a duty of confidentiality in respect of information relating to you which we obtain during the course of our retainer. All such information will be regarded as, and kept confidential at all times unless you instruct us to disclose information or except in the circumstances set out within these Terms.

Our duty of confidentiality to you is subject to any disclosures we are required to make in good faith to the police, governmental, regulatory or supervisory authorities in relation to any statutory or regulatory obligations. In particular, we are required, without your knowledge or consent, to report any awareness or suspicion of money laundering in relation to the proceeds of any crime. We can also be ordered by the Government Agencies to disclose information and answer questions about your private affairs, again without your knowledge and consent.

Our duty of confidentiality does not apply to a disclosure we make to our insurers pursuant to the terms of our professional indemnity insurance policy. In the event of a claim, complaint or the notification of a circumstance which may give rise to a loss or claim, we are obliged to make a notification to our insurers and this may necessarily result in your file being disclosed to our brokers or insurers.

An actual or potential conflict between your interests and the interests of another client of the firm may arise during the course of a matter. We have procedures in place to ensure that conflict of interest checks are carried out at the start of every matter to ensure that, if an issue arises, it can be discussed with you and dealt with as soon as possible. Our procedures on dealing with conflicts enable us to comply with our obligations to act for a client in a matter where there is an actual, or significant risk of a conflict with:

- i. another existing client of ours (client conflict); or
- ii. the interests of our firm (own conflict)

If this situation arises during our dealings with you, we will discuss the position with you and determine the appropriate course of action.

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

We are committed to promoting equality and diversity in all our dealings with clients, third parties and employees. Consistent with our internal policies and procedures, we will not discriminate in the way we provide our services on the grounds of race, colour, religion, nationality, ethnic origin, sexual orientation, gender, age, disability or marital status. In accordance with the Equality Act 2010, we will ensure that all reasonable adjustments (where need be) are made for our clients with disabilities.

Our firm is a signatory to the Law Society's Diversity and Inclusion Charter. Please contact us if you would like a copy of our equality and diversity policy.

MONEY LAUNDERING, TERRORISM FINANCING AND PROLIFERATION FINANCING

Fee Earners who deal with money and property on behalf of their clients can be used by criminals wanting to launder money or other illegal purposes. We also need to comply fully with anti-money laundering, counter-terrorist financing and counter-proliferation financing statutory and other regulatory requirements that apply to our sector. To comply with our statutory obligations the Firm operates an anti-money laundering policy and reporting procedure.

We are under a strict legal duty to report any circumstances where we know or suspect that a client is involved in or a matter have involvement with money laundering, terrorist financing or proliferation financing, to the National Crime Agency. If we make a disclosure in relation to your matter, we may not be able to tell you that a disclosure has been made or seek your consent. If we make a disclosure, we may also have to stop working on your matter for a period of time and may not be able to tell you why.

Identification & Verification

In view of the above, we may be required to identify and verify your identity as well as the identity of other persons such as directors or beneficial owners of a company.

We may also be required to carry out background checks on you as well third parties and to make detailed enquiries as to the source of funds being used in relation to transactions on which we are instructed to advise.

Depending on the type of matter and the particular circumstances of the instructions, we may ask you to provide us with proof of your identity, to make searches of appropriate databases and/or obtain detailed information about the source of any funds or your financial circumstances and the sources of your income and wealth. This information will usually be requested at the outset of the matter and before any work can commence but it may also need to be requested again at other times during the matter, as appropriate.

We are required to retain records of the identification obtained. We may delay, decline or cease to act for you if we have requested to see proof of your identity, but there has been an unreasonable delay in providing it. If you cannot provide us with the specific identification requested, please contact us as soon as possible to discuss other ways to verify your identity.

You must also not send us any money until we have told you these checks have been completed.

Subject to the provisions above in relation to liability, we shall not be liable for any loss arising from or connected with our compliance with any statutory obligation, or executing our internal procedures put in place to meet those obligations in good faith, or reasonable belief we may have, to report matters to the relevant authorities under the provisions of the money laundering, terrorist financing and/or proliferation financing legislation.

FINANCIAL SANCTIONS

The UK sanctions regime imposes serious and extensive restrictions on our dealing with clients (and other third parties) who are or become a designated person under the UK sanctions legislation. There are specific reporting obligations and prohibitions (with potential

As such, to determine if we can act for you in a certain matter or if there are any other reporting duties we need to comply with, we may also need to conduct additional verification checks on you, other persons such as directors or beneficial owners of a company as well as, potentially, other third parties such as counter-parties in a matter.

MORTGAGE FRAUD

We currently do not undertake any mortgage related transactions and we are likely to decline any instructions whereby a transaction is being funded by way of the aid of mortgage secured by the client.

TERMINATION

Termination by you

You may withdraw your instructions at any time by written notice to us.

Should your matter not be carried through to completion then a charge will be made in respect of the work that has already been completed based upon the fee structure that has been agreed. VAT or similar taxes will be payable on that amount and you will also be billed for any disbursements incurred.

We will be entitled to keep all your papers and documents whilst there is money owing to us for our fees and expenses.

Termination by us

In some circumstances, we may consider that we ought to cease acting for you. We will only decline to act further for you where we have reasonable grounds to do so. Valid reason for our terminating our relationship with you and/or ceasing to provide services includes:

- failure by you to settle invoices in full on the due date or to make payments in advance when so requested;
- failure by you to give clear and proper instructions on how we are to proceed;
- if it is clear that you have lost confidence in how we are carrying out your instructions;
- if by continuing to act we would be in breach of the law or rules of professional conduct;
- if you act in an abusive or offensive manner; and/or

- you or an associated individual become a designated person under the UK sanctions legislation or there is an increased sanctions risk that cannot be managed to an acceptable level.

This is not an exhaustive list. If we do cease to act for you then we will confirm in writing the reasons why and give you reasonable notice.

STORAGE AND RETRIEVAL OF FILES

At the end of the matter, we will be entitled to keep all your papers and documents while there is still money owed to us for fees and expenses.

At the conclusion of your matter, we will store your file of papers for a reasonable period of time. We would usually store casefiles for six years from the date of the final bill but reserve the right to determine the period of storage. Such papers or files may be stored in an electronic form (with the original paper version being destroyed as soon as it is scanned and saved as an electronic file).

There may be documents such as deeds or wills which we have agreed to deposit for you in safe custody or documents that you have otherwise asked to be returned to you. We will not destroy any such documents.

This service is currently free of charge.

We also reserve our rights to destroy your files and papers (whether electronic or paper based) after a reasonable period, without prior notice to you, unless we receive a written request from you during this period. At your request we will return any papers or property belonging to you which are not subject to a lien or otherwise being stored for safe keeping.

If we retrieve papers or documents or electronic data from storage in relation to continuing or renewing instructions to act for you, we will not charge for the direct cost for retrieval from storage. You may also have a right to be provided with a copy of personal data held by us as part of a legitimate subject access request (see the data protection section above). However, in all other cases, we reserve the right to make a charge for the retrieval or delivery of any stored files (including electronic data), papers or deeds or a charge based on the time we spend reading stored files, papers of deeds, writing letters or other work necessary to comply with your instructions. If charges are made, they would be based on our hourly rate applicable at the given time and/or any reasonable postage charges, where applicable, but we would always discuss this with you beforehand.

CUSTODY, RETENTION AND TRANSFER OF DOCUMENTS

We will, at your request, either during the provision or after completion of any services, release to you or to your order your documents and documents held for you, provided that we are not at the time exercising our right to retain documents pending payment of outstanding fees and expenses or are prevented by any court order, undertaking or other legal constraint from doing so. We may copy all of your documents and documents held for you before releasing them.

We may at any time scan, microfilm, or otherwise make electronic copies or images of any documents (other than documents held in safe custody), destroy the originals and thereafter hold the documents only in such copy or image form. Unless expressly agreed otherwise in writing we will keep all documents whether in original, copy or imaged form for a minimum of six (6) years, after which we may destroy them and any copies or images of them.

We may agree to store title deeds, wills and other especially valuable documents in safe custody for you if you require and, if we do, we will not, without your consent, destroy any such documents.

We do not accept responsibility for the loss or damage of any item which we hold on your behalf unless we expressly agree in writing to the contrary.

Following conclusion of a transaction or case on behalf of a client, we will retain the client's file of papers and documents whilst there is still money owed to us for fees and expenses.

We will keep our file of your papers for six (6) years, except those that you ask to be returned to you or if you require us to keep your papers for a specific period. If you require us to keep your papers for a specified period you must give us notice in writing to that effect, and in the event of such notice being given we reserve the right to require the client to take personal custody of the papers. We will provide a safe custody service to clients in respect of such requests and a single charge will be made to the client for such storage currently at the rate of £75.00 (inclusive of VAT) unless agreed otherwise in writing.

We keep files on the understanding that we can destroy them six (6) years after the date of the final bill, without prior notice to you. We will not destroy documents you ask us to deposit in safe custody, such as deeds or wills.

CANCELLATION OF YOUR INSTRUCTIONS

Right to cancel

This Notice has been provided to you because you have entered into a contract to which the Consumer Contracts (Information, Cancellation and Additional Charges) Regulations 2013 ('the Regulations') apply. Under the Regulations, you have the right to cancel this contract if you wish to do so within fourteen working days without giving any reason.

This Notice explains how to exercise this right. It also gives you other information that is required by the Regulations.

The cancellation period will expire after 14 days from the day of the conclusion of the contract - that is within 14 days of the date that you receive this notice.

In order to exercise your right to cancel the contract, you need to deliver or send to us a cancellation notice (that is, a written and clear statement that you wish to cancel the contract e.g. a letter sent by post, fax or email). The cancellation statement or notice should be delivered or sent to Abess Taqi at Suite 21 Imperial House, 64 Willoughby Lane, Tottenham, London N17 0SP or at abess@virgosolicitors.co.uk. You can use the cancellation form provided below / attached if you wish, but you do not have to do so.

To meet the cancellation deadline, it is sufficient for you to send your communication concerning your exercise of the right to cancel before the cancellation period has expired.

Commencing work during the 14 day cancellation period

We cannot provide any services before the end of the cancellation period unless you have made an express request to that effect. If you require us to undertake some urgent work for you before the cancellation period expires, you are welcome to request that we do so. This request should be made in writing and sent to Abess Taqi at Suite 21 Imperial House, 64 Willoughby Lane, Tottenham, London N17 0SP or at abess@virgosolicitors.co.uk.

However, please note that if you do ask us to begin the performance of services during the cancellation period and then subsequently seek to cancel the contract, you will be liable to pay us an amount which is in proportion to what has been performed until the time that you have communicated us your cancellation from this contract, in comparison with the full coverage of the contract.

Effects of cancellation

If you cancel this contract within the relevant period, this will end both your and our obligations under the contract.

There may be some potential difficulties in re-applying for legal aid for the same matter, if the contract is terminated. We would suggest that you contact us immediately in order that we may discuss this with you in more detail or, if that is appropriate to seek the advice of another solicitor.

If you cancel this contract, we will reimburse to you all payments received from you.

We will make the reimbursement without undue delay, and not later than 14 days after the day on which we are informed about your decision to cancel this contract.

We will make the reimbursement using the same means of payment as you used for the initial transaction, unless you have expressly agreed otherwise; in any event, you will not incur any fees as a result of the reimbursement.
